The Department Commander of Iowa, Gen. W. A. Molieury, is one of the best-known men in the Grand Army. He served with distinction in the war as a cavalry officer from that State. He lives new residence. His old comrades in-arms and their wives, mothers, daughters and sons stand foremost in his heart, and he invited them to the first public gathering under its roof. A recent evening found the mansion lit from cellar to garret, and all things in rendiness to receive his guests. Nearly every member of Root Post, G.A.R., W. A. McHenry Camp, S. of V., and the W.R.C. were in attendance and spent one of the most enjoyable evenings of their lives. In behalf of the veterans and their sons, Col. Geo, L. Wright, Assistant Adjutant-General of emblems. In replying the Commander spoke most leadingly of the love he bore the G.A.R. and its auxiliary organizations, and the pride he takes in their rapid and steady advancement. In behalf of . Goldheim, of our city, he then presented Root Post a nearly complete set of the bonds and money issued by the late Confederacy, tastily ar-ranged in a frame. The money and bonds bear the faces and autographs of nearly all the great leaders of the Southern cause. It is probably the only set the kind in Iowa, and will in time be very valushie. A most bountiful collation was served at the close of the presentation addresses. KANSAS,-

Now this is not true. We were second and third quarters in arrears, but from no fault of ours. It was because the Adjutant General would not give us credit, and kept us in a false light, and we were trying to get it straight. On the 20th of September we sent the per-capita tax and reports for the second and third quarters (which he says in a letter is all of our arrearage), and still he claims $1.18 more.
